

Diane Mont

Artist's Statement

I was taught in the classic approach, leaning composition and value tones, as well as seeing shapes. I have an acute eye for color and enjoy using it expressively. In my paintings I like to show texture and detail as a way to capture nature through my eyes.